[Course Load]

Winter Abroad at Yonsei

- ✓ Minimum 3 credits (1 course)
- ✓ Maximum 9 credits (3 courses)

[Course Level]

The course level can be determined by the course code. If the course code is 1000 level (e.g. IEE1101), the course is considered a General Education / Lower Level undergraduate course. From 2000 to 4000, the course is considered a Major Elective / Required / Basic course. From 5000 above, the course is classified as a Graduate Course.

[Prerequisites]

Some courses list prerequisites in their syllabus. Students are required to check if they are eligible for the class or not. Students should assess their background of the listed prerequisites. If you are not sure, contact the faculty for advice. Students should have another course in mind as a backup, because permission for an exception may not be granted. Dropping or switching to another course should be done during the Add & Drop period.

[Reference Code]

Code	Meaning
ⓐ	Course is taught in a language other than Korean and English (e.g. Chinese, Japanese, Spanish, French, etc.).
ⓑ	Course is graded on an Absolute.
ⓒ	Course is offered at Songdo International Campus. (Therefore, it is NOT available for exchange/visiting students.)
①	Course has supplementary video lectures, available at the YSCEC website
②	Course is taught in English

- Courses without reference codes of ⓐ and ② are taught in Korean.

- Other than the above pre-fixed reference codes, each college/department may add more numbers or codes, and those have different restriction or information.

(a) – Relative Grading Policy, (b) – Absolute grading policy, (c) – P/NP, ⓐ – Native Lecture, ① – supplementary video lectures, ② – Course Taught in English,

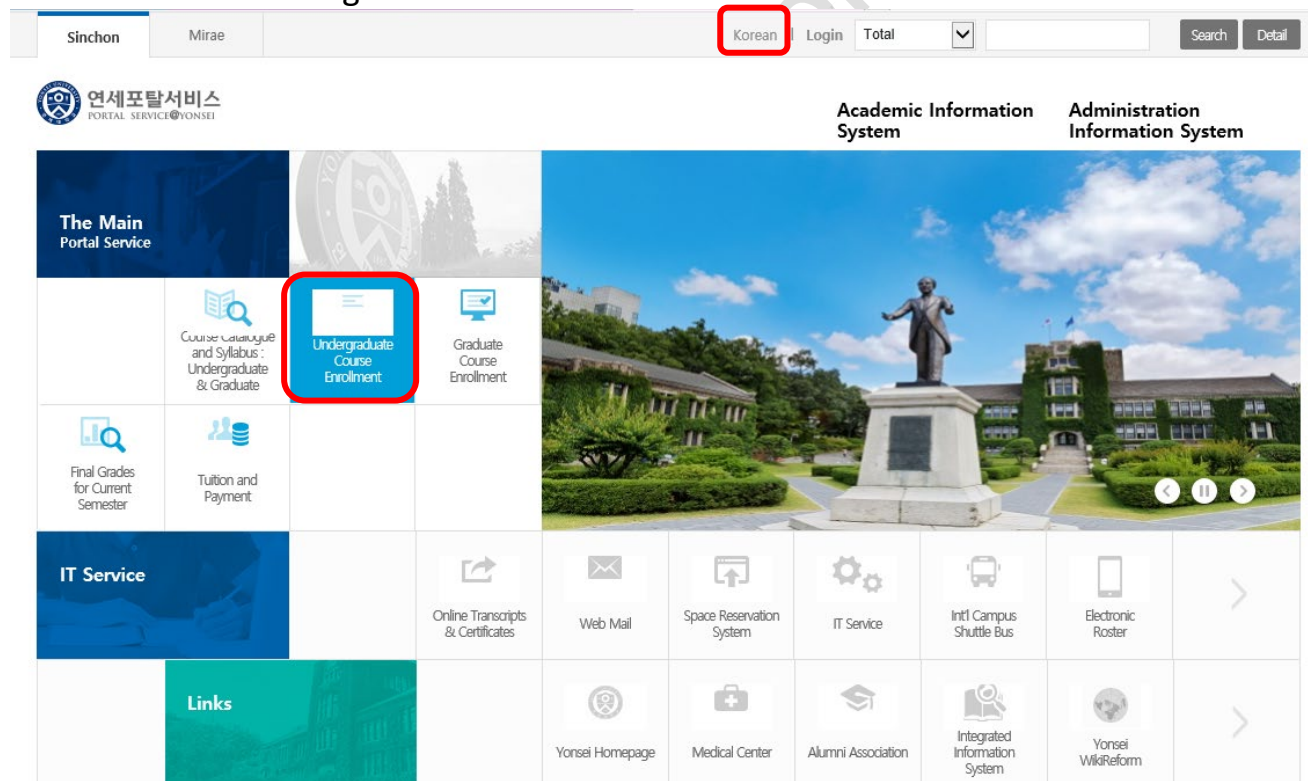

[Course Availability]

- ✓ A WAY course will be cancelled if less than 5 international students register for the course.
- ✓ A Yonsei Winter Session course will be cancelled if less than 20 students register for the course.
- ✓ In the event that your class is cancelled, consult the WAY program manager immediately.
- ✓ There will be a notice regarding the cancellation on classes on November 20th and November 26th.
